IN THE
Court of Appeal of the State of California

IN AND FOR THE
Fifth Appellate District

F043979 People v. Burch

The judgment is reversed and the cause remanded to the superior court. The court is directed to vacate its order denying the motion to suppress and enter a new order granting the motion to suppress and enter a new order granting the motion. The court is directed to vacate the guilty plea if Burch makes an appropriate motion within 30 days after the remittitur is issued. In that event, the superior court should reinstate the original charges contained in the information if the prosecution so moves. If Burch does not move to vacate the guilty plea, the trial court is directed to reinstate the original judgment.

By the Court.

F041763 People v. Haag

The findings that appellant was convicted in 1982 for violating section 452, subdivision (b) and thereby suffered a prior serious or violent felony conviction for purposes of a strike (667, subds. (b)-(i), 1170.12, subds. (a)-(e) and a five-year enhancement (667, subd. (a)) are reversed and the allegations are stricken. The sentence is modified to strike the five-year enhancement imposed for the 1982 section 452, subdivision (b) prior conviction. The sentence is further modified so that execution of the sentences imposed for counts 6 and 7 is stayed pending the finality of the judgment and service of the sentences on the remaining counts, the stay to become permanent upon completion of the terms imposed. In all other respects, the judgment is affirmed. The trial court is directed to prepare an amended abstract of judgment reflecting said modifications and to forward a certified copy to the Department of Corrections. Ardaiz, P.J.

We concur: Harris, J.; Gomes, J.
